

Production Techniques - Template

3) Page Template: The third phase of your final project is to create your template for your site that you will use to create the other pages from:

- this template shall be built using the production techniques shown in class.
- This shall be posted to your server and emailed to your instructor for grade as your production techniques assignment